Windsor, July 17.

THE Commissioners of the late General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, appointed to attend Her Majesty, did this day Congratulate Her in the following Address, upon the Glorious Victory obtain'd over the French, near Audenarde.

The humble Address of the Commissioners of the late General Assembly of the Church of Scotland; presented to Her Majesty by Mr. William Carstairs, Mr. Sterling, and Mr. Bailie, by Order of the Commission of the late General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

May it please Your Majesty,

IT is with a peculiar Joy and Satisfaction that we imbrace this Opportunity of Congratulating Your Majesty, in the Name, and by the Appointment of the Commission of the late General Assembly of the Church of that part of Your united Kingdom called Scotland, upon the Glorious Victory obtain'd over Your Proud and Insulting Enemy, by the Blessing of God upon Your Majesty's Forces and those of Your Allies, under the Conduct of Your Captain-General the Duke of Marlborough. This, Madam, is a Blessing so seasonable, and gives such a comfortable Prospect of future Advantages, as it ought to raise in all Your loving Subjects an Admiration of Divine Goodness, and ought to excite them to thankful Acknowledgments, and a just Improvement of it. It is a Blessing that cannot but confound the Hopes of Your Enemies at Home and Abroad, of ever succeeding in their wicked Contrivances to shake Your Throne, or disturb Your Government, while they see that Your Majesty is under the particular Care of Over-ruling Providence.

As, Madam, we are assur'd that none have been more earnest than the Ministers and Members of the Church of Scotland, in their Prayers to the God of Heaven, that he would multiply his Blessings upon Your Royal Person, and make Your Reign Glorious by continu'd Victories in this just War, in which You are engag'd for the publick Good of Europe, as well as of Your own Dominions; so we are perswaded, none will more chearfully give Returns of Praise to the Infinitely good God for the merciful Answers he hath given to their Petitions and Desires: And we are confident, Madam, that we shall be fully approv'd by those that appointed us to Congratulate Your Majesty upon this remarkable and happy Occasion, in making an humble Application to Your Majesty, That You would be pleased to Interpose Your Royal Authority, that a Day of solemn Thanksgiving be Religiously observ'd through that part of Your united Kingdom call'd Scotland, for the late wonderful Success that God hath given against the Common Enemy, and the many signal Blessings that have hitherto attended Your Majesty's Government. The tender Regard that Your Majesty, in Your great Goodness, hath had for the Harmony, as well as Safety of our Church, gives us Assurance that Your Majesty will be pleased to give Orders, that the Proclamation for this Day of Thanksgiving, in that part of Your united Kingdom, shall be so fram'd, as it shall be suited to the Constitution of the Establish'd Church there; and that none of Your faithful Subjects shall have just Ground to be dissatisfy'd with it.

That Your Majesty may be always Compass'd about with the Divine Favour, as with a Shield, and that by the continu'd Blessing of God upon the Forces of Your Majesty and Your Allies, the Power of the ambitious Disturber of the Quiet of Europe may be so reduc'd, as that he shall cease to be a Terror to his Neighbours, and be made incapable to maintain his unjust Conquests, are and shall be the earnest and constant Prayers of Your Majesty's most humble and most obedient Subjects.

The two following Addresses were also presented to her Majesty on the same Memorable Occasion.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Barons, and Freeholders of the Shire of Dumbarton, at a Meeting appointed at Dumbarton the 20th Day of July, by the Duke of Montross, Heretable Sheriff of the Shire; presented to her Majesty by the Rt. Hon the Earl of Sunderland, one of her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The humble Address of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace within the Town of Taunton, and the Liberties thereof; together with the Corporation of Conservators of the River Tone, Gentlemen and other Principal Inhabitants residing within the same Precinct; presented to her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, &c.

The humble Address of the President and Council of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, in congratulation of the happy Union of the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, was transmitted from thence to Colonel Hunter, her Majesty's Lieutenant and Governor of the said Colony, but presented to her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, their said Governor being a Prisoner of War.

All which Addresses Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

Milan, July 13. N. S. On the 7th Instant her Catholick Majesty left this Place, in order to proceed to Vado, and arriv'd the next Day at Cava, in the Lomelino, within the Territories of his Royal Highness of Savoy. General Grondana was deputed by that Prince to receive her in his Royal Highness's Name; which was perform'd with all possible Magnificence. On the 9th the Queen lay at Voghera; and on the 10th proceeded as far as Novi, on the Frontier of the State of Genoa. The Republick began to make Preparations for her Majesty's Reception, but the Queen did not think fit to go to Genoa, or receive the Compliments of the Ambassadors from thence, by reason the Ceremonial on that Occasion was not adjusted. Her Majesty went as far as St. Pietro d'Arena on the 11th; which Place she intended to leave yesterday, in order to embark at Vado on the 16th. They write from Naples, that the Prince of Hesse-Darmstad arriv'd there on the 29th of the last Month, and has taken upon him the Command of the Troops in that Kingdom. On the second Instant Cardinal Grimani assum'd the Charge of the Government, as Viceroy. His Excellency immediately enter'd upon Business, and set a more reasonable Price upon Corn and Bread. His Excellency, in a very generous manner, refus'd all the Presents which were offer'd to him by the Colleges of the City. Those Letters add, That 1500 Germans were arriv'd in the Neighbourhood of that City, who are to follow the other Imperial Forces against Sicily. They advise further, That a Felucca was come in thither from Palermo, with Intelligence that the Inhabitants of that Place, ever since the late Tumult, had stood to their Arms, and expell'd the French. Letters from Turin say, That his Royal Highness of Savoy intended, within few Days, to place himself at the head of his Troops, and open the Campaign. His Royal Highness's Infantry consists of 25531 Men; his Cavalry of 8708. Count Thaun, late Viceroy of Naples, has pass'd through this City on his way into Piedmont, where he is to command the Imperial Troops in the Service of his Royal Highness.

Berlin, July 21. N. S. The long continuance of ill Weather has hitherto prevented the King's going to Charlottemburg, where he designs to pass the rest of the Summer; the Apartments of that Palace being finish'd for his Majesty's Reception. 'Tis said King Augustus is suddenly expected here, to make his Majesty a Visit. Letters from Wilda advise, that the King of Sweden was advanc'd to Bugnitz near the Boristhenes, and that a Party of Cosaques, who lay conceal'd among Bushes opposite to a place where his Majesty was walking on the Bank of that River, had fir'd upon the King, and wounded the Prince of Wirtemberg, who walk'd near him. His Majesty gave all the Muscovite Prisoners their Liberty before he left Radoskowitz.
